COAST CLIPPINGS.

The Hecla mine, Lion City, Montana, employs 200 men.

The codling moth is destroying the apple crop in Calaveras county, Cal.

The copper mines in Arizona produced 8,100,000 pounds of copper last year.

The consumption of lumber in San Francisco, in 1881, was 92,565,989 feet.

Over 80 cars of Nebraska corn passed through last week for California.

Work on the Grand Prize and Argentine mines of Tuscarora, is to be resumed.

The Northern Pacific Railroad furnishes employment for 10,000 men in Montana.

Two mines in Santa Fe district, Esmeralda county, were sold recently for $80,000.

The hydraulic mines at Mooney Flat are in full blast, running night and day.

During the year just passed, 322,334 tons of coal were mined in the State of Alabama.

Orange trees at Pasadena, Cal., are blossoming. Strawberries are not yet ripe in our valleys.

The bullion output in Arizona for 1881 was $12,171,707 23, against $9,805,971 in Nevada.

The milling capacity in Colorado is 2,500 tons daily, and the smelting capacity 2,000 tons daily.

The DeSoto mine, at Star, shipped carloads of ore this winter yielding over $700 per ton in silver.

It is estimated that the value of fruit growing in the United States annually equals $75,000,000.

The new mill for the Highland Chief mining company, Lewis, Lander county, is nearly completed.

Arizona now ranks fifth in her silver output—Colorado first, New Mexico second, Utah third, Nevada fourth.

The Candelaria True Picture says the town presents the appearance of a double-header. It is growing at both ends.

Carro Gordo, Inyo County, is showing up again. The Palma, Keynote and Muskingham mines are opening up good ledges.

It is stated in Elko, says the Independent upon good authority, that work upon the Grand Prize and Argentine mines of Tuscarora is soon to be resumed.

The showaheds on the Central Pacific Railroad in the Sierra Nevada Mountains cost ordinarily from $8,000 to $12,000 per mile, and in some cases as high as $30,000 per mile.

The Elko Independent says: Considering the extreme cold weather of the past two months, stock men think it strange that cattle are doing so well. They attribute this to the scarcity of cattle on the ranges.

Lang and Ryan of Chayenne bought lately twenty thousand head of cattle and five hundred saddle horses, from the ranchers of Wasco county, Eastern Oregon. Other firms are also purchasing live stock at good prices.

In the case of David Miller, of Santa Rosa, charged with the murder of Fred. Roussan, last December, the summing up of counsel closed at 5 o'clock Saturday night. The Judge charged the jury, and at 5:30 the jury retired to deliberate.

The ranchers of Curry county, Oregon, have gradually reduced their herds of cattle and correspondingly augmented their flocks of sheep during a few years past. It is probable that more attention will be given to cattle raising during the coming year than has been for several years past.

The greatest proof of the genuine merit of an article can be found in the amount of patronage it receives, and the thousands of testimonials respecting the Great German Remedy, prove most conclusively that it is all that it is represented to be. T. J. Murphy, who resides at No. 61 Dabavice street, Brooklyn, N. Y., is one of the fortunate ones. I rubbed St. Jacobs Oil all over my left leg for several days, and it cured as pretty a case of rheumatism as ever was fastened on to a man. I never had the disease before this winter. But as almost everybody else was suffering with it, I guess I had to be in the fashion. So one day I felt a nasty sort of pain creeping down my left limb, but didn't think much of it until night, when it began to make me groan. I had seen the advertisements of St. Jacobs Oil, and had heard something about it from friends. I therefore got a bottle of it and went for my left leg. I did not stint myself in the use of the Oil, but rubbed a half a bottle on the first time. The first application gave me great relief, and I let up on it until the next day, when I used the remainder in the bottle. That settled it. I have not felt any rheumatic pains since. So much for that trial.

MOLINE, Ill., July 14, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedies, or any other, until we used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. With both units in pronouncing it to be the best medicine ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

Mayor of Moline, Chicago, May 30, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
MY DEAR SIR: For several years I have been a sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what it is to be free from pain. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give me relief, I tried your remedy, and it was a well man to-day.

Thousands of equally strong endorsements may be found in cases where hope was abandoned—have been voluntarily given showing the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in all diseases of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. UNCLE BEN JO'S GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1850. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1884 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle Ben Jo, as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when grown and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lies over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Ben Jo named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nera." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia, rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, Reno, Nev.

A NEW DISEASE

Barbarism meant the black death and many another equally hideous means of parting soul and body. Civilization means more insidious but equally efficacious methods, and the very latest is known and chronicled in the London Globe as "drawing-room malaria." One would fancy that in this apartment, free from the traps of stationary washstands and other civilized ports of entrance for diphtheria and its tribe, that immunity might be had, but a form of low fever has developed, accounted for by Professors Klebs, Crudele and others as far back as 1879, on a certain theory demonstrated now by positive experience to be a fact. Plants have become more and more an essential portion of the furnishing of such rooms, and the heat customarily maintained in them has filled the air with a moist vapor arising from the earth in which they are planted. This earth, rich in organic matter, parts with it when acted upon by heat in infinitesimal portions inhaled with every breath and in time poisoning and deteriorating the blood. The symptoms speedily take on the forms noticeable in those who inhabit marshy places, and only the removal of the ferns and plants has secured permanent relief. High temperature and no ventilation will bring about much the same result, and the whole seems to sum up as an argument for more air and less heat.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Judge Goodwin, of the Salt Lake Tribune, moves his able pen manfully for the anti-polygamy cause. In a recent article in answer to the News (Mormon organ), he says: "The News ought to be aware that in ten thousand Mormon homes the shame and suffering of the present are only borne through the hope of a blessed rest at last. Think of an adobe cabin 16x20 feet in size, situated on a hot plain, with no shade tree within forty miles; with two wives and fifteen children, all burrowing there like pigs, eating together, sleeping together and fighting together, year after year; think of that and then of calling it a basis for the rest which the good hope for beyond the grave. Why after a trial in such a home hell itself would have no surprises."

An exchange says: "When we reflect how common a pet the parrot is, it is singular that the best ornithologists differ entirely upon the question, 'Do they require water?' The naturalist connected for thirty years with the London Zoological garden says positively that they do not; that the parrots there are kept altogether without water. Yet quite recently a naturalist of Liverpool was prosecuted and fined by the efforts of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for sending a few of these birds on a two days' journey without water."

A schoolmaster of Njce has formed among his pupils a society for the protection of vegetation. The members are to destroy injurious larvae and protect harmless birds. Their interest in the work is kept up by the election of laureates and the award of prizes. In four months of 1881 the children destroyed 4,555 beetles of moth eggs, representing no fewer than 1,863,500 larvae; 194,328 cabbage larvae; 1,583 grasshoppers, 629 butterflies; 58,911 slugs and snails; 1,274 grubs, and 35,731 insects of various kinds. The work is both very valuable and very instructive.

The article in the GAZETTE copied recently from the Call, seems to have referred to a case that occurred in Eastern Nevada, near Bovine station, instead of Boca. The GAZETTE mistook it for a confused account of the quarantine between Reno and Truckee, but it had no reference to that. It was another case entirely.

The total State, county, city and school debt of the country is rather over than under $1,100,000,000.

Vanderbilt's Views of the Eastern Railroad War.
 NEW YORK, March 17.

William H. Vanderbilt was called upon at his residence last evening by a Tribune reporter, who desired to get his views as to the relation of the railroad settlement of the war between them; the condition of their business now, and the outlook for traffic in the future. Mr. Vanderbilt was found in a genial and communicative mood, and talked freely on the subject. In reply to an inquiry about the present condition of railroad matters, he said: "The railroad war on both passenger and freight rates is practically settled. The first step was perhaps the hardest to take, but after that everything appears to have worked smoothly enough. The railroad companies are acting now in a spirit of harmony and mutual concession, that renders the carrying out of the present agreement perfectly easy." "They have made a pooling arrangement for five years, and I suppose all the minor details necessary to the fulfillment of that agreement have been perfected," asked the reporter.

"Yes, yes. There is no longer any railroad war. It has ended. It was about time that a stop was put to it. For nearly a year the railroads were engaged in a bitter conflict, and it was evident that the companies themselves could not settle all the questions involved in the struggle. It became absolutely indispensable that the business men of the country should act as arbitrators between railroads whose officers were drifting daily farther apart. That has been done, and from the business men who are fully alive to the magnitude of the railroad questions and the influences which will flow from the decision of them, we may expect the fullest discussion and most correct judgment. As I said just now, it was quite time that the railroad war was brought to a close. The war has taught us all a good lesson. At any rate I have learned lessons that I shall never forget. I have no doubt the officers of all the railroads are wiser than they were a year ago. The war has cost a great deal of money and the only practical advantage that has been gained is the knowledge of how cheaply the work of transportation can be done. That is a matter that has been clearly proved by the contest, and I think most railroad men have been surprised at the result, but I tell you it was due to stockholders and to everybody that the war should be stopped. We all recognized the insanity of prolonging it."

Will peace be lasting? asked the reporter.

"Oh, undoubtedly it will be maintained for several years, and it is hardly probable that anything will happen to break it."

"Is it true that the question of differential rates has not been decided and the Advisory Commission has no power?" asked the reporter.

"No," Vanderbilt replied, "but I anticipate a decision that will be so eminently just that the railroads will accept it without a word of dissent. You see this matter of differential rates has become a national question of vast importance. It passed out of the hands of railroad men, partially, because of its very importance, but mainly because railroad men showed themselves incompetent to handle it. Their views were narrow and their opinions were warped by personal feelings and official interests, because they were unable to determine the question. I suggested some months ago that it should be left to arbitration, and that the business men of the country should give it a thorough examination and discussion. From that suggestion, I believe, has sprung the Advisory Commission, which is now considering the subject. Certainly the men who constitute that Commission are men of ability, of fairness and practical wisdom. No better men, probably, could have been selected, and the result of their deliberation will be accepted by the world as the justest conclusion that could be reached. I presume the officers of railroad companies will accept it as the basis of a settlement. Certainly I shall be willing to do so if it will give my railroad a chance to live. We have been fighting New York's battle for a long time and it has cost us millions of money. We cannot fight the battle unaided and alone. The business men of New York have a deep interest in the contest and should do their utmost to protect the commercial supremacy of the city. The N. Y. Central R. R. is pre-eminently a New York institution, and deserves the support of its business men; but for all that we have to consider the interests of other places on our line. As a matter of business, a man at Rochester is of just as much consequence to the road as a man at Syracuse, and one at Albany as another at Buffalo. We want every place on the line of our road to prosper, for in its success lies the prosperity of the roads themselves."

"What is the present condition of railroad business?"

"I consider the outlook to be extremely favorable. We are doing a good business; in fact, the traffic is rather larger in volume than it has been before, but the low rates of freight have prevented our reaping the full advantage of the increased business."

ness. I understand the prospects of large crops this season are exceedingly brilliant, and, altogether, it is my opinion that the railroads will earn more this year than last. The Lake Shore earned its 8 per cent. dividends last year in spite of all the statements to the contrary, and I have no doubt that the business will be sufficient for the rest of the present year to enable it to continue its 8 per cent. dividends. The speculation in grain, as you are aware, hurt the railroads considerably. The prices at Chicago and the West were forced to such points that export demand was checked, and the railroads suffered accordingly. How utterly unjust is some of the talk of legislation about railroads. Why, tell me, should transportation of grain be a matter of legislation, when a few speculators, selfish and unwise, are allowed to throw the whole carrying business into confusion by their speculative movements. Legislate to restrict such ruinous speculation in grain or else let it alone."

What an Old Arctic Explorer Thinks.
 CHICAGO, March 17.

Lieutenant Schwatka, the Arctic explorer, said in an interview to-day that he does not think there is any chance of the survival of any of the Jeannette's crew except Chip's boat, which may have gone further east along the Siberian coast, and may work his way out along the Pacific coast, but the chances are against him, too. DeLong has no chance. He looks for definite information about the middle of June. He thinks the Jeannette was seaworthy and staunch. Schwatka is writing a 400 page illustrated book, and it will soon be placed in the hands of publishers in New York.

More of the Debate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.
 The House debate on the Chinese bill was continued by Cassidy, who remarked that unless political pledges go for nothing the bill should pass unanimously, as all the political parties of this country had declared Chinese immigration ought to be restricted. He proceeded to argue the necessity for the bill's passage.

Taylor of Ohio, Garfield's successor, then made an earnest speech against the bill, opposing it on every ground, and broadly denying the truth of nearly all the assertions made in its support.

The Wheat Crop for 1892.
 CINCINNATI, March 17.

The Price Current will to-morrow print the reports from wheat crops, covering points in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Michigan, Kentucky and Tennessee, and from a few places in other Western States, from which it makes the conclusion that the winter crop of wheat now promises an outcome equal to any previous year, and if the spring sowing is an average one, the wheat crop of 1892 may be counted on as reaching five hundred million bushels, with chances of even larger results than the great crop of '80.

Congressman Taylor's Views.
 WASHINGTON, March 17.

In the discussion on the Chinese bill Taylor claimed that the people of California have a remedy in their own hands. "Don't employ Chinese," said he, "and they won't come." He insisted also that the bill is an offspring of passion and prejudice, and after referring to the know-nothing excitement of '66, contended that this measure strikes at the rights and interests of all foreign born people. Taylor's speech was considerably applauded on the Republican side. Blount, of Georgia, followed in the advocacy of the bill.

Mob Law and Its Results.
 PORTLAND, Oreg., March 17.

An Oregon, Jacksonville, special of the 14th inst. says: Capt. D. J. Fenece, just arrived from Linkville, gives the following particulars of the attempt to lynch the murderer C. Laws. On Saturday night, at one o'clock, 17 armed and masked men rode into town and entered the office of Greenman's Hotel, where Laws was under guard awaiting examination. Justice Wright, Sheriff Lewis and several others were in the office. The lynchers ordered all to sit down, which was obeyed. The leader took the light from the table, saying, "We want the prisoner. Come on, boys!" and went into the hall. A shot was fired from up stairs by the prisoner's guard. About that time Lewis was shot by the lynchers through the thigh, cutting the femoral artery. He died in five minutes. The shot extinguished the light and those present jumped out of the window, and Wright was shot in the arm, the bullet grazing his side, while trying to escape from the lynchers. They then, left, taking along a wounded man, who is supposed to be shot in the head, as the hat picked up was riddled with shot and a piece of scalp, with a tuft of hair attached. The shot that struck him was supposed to have been fired by Lewis, as the gun was found behind him, with one barrel discharged, and he had no arms upon him. It is hard to say who fired the first shot in the office. The supposition is that the leaders of the lynchers were from Modoc county, California, where the friends of the boy Calavan, murdered by Laws while residing, and reinforced by cattle men from Langel valley and Bonanza. There is no sympathy expressed for Laws, but the killing of Sheriff Lewis is deeply regretted. The lynchers were evidently well informed and knew the prisoner was up stairs, and had it not been for the rashness of his guard, Stripling, the innocent party would not have been hurt. The affair creates much excitement, but quiet is now restored. Laws was to be examined to-day. It is thought the attempt may be made to take him while on his way to the county jail at Lake View, 120 miles from Linkville. The examination of Laws is progressing.

The Whisky Tax.
 WASHINGTON, March 17.

Representative Robeson presided at a caucus of Republican representatives last night, when a resolution was adopted, without dissent, to the effect that any legislation at the present time looking to a reduction of the Internal Revenue taxes upon whisky, tobacco and cigars is unwise and inexpedient, but that some relief should be accorded by Congress by extending the time whisky may remain in bond without the payment of tax.

Railroad Collision.
 BALTIMORE, March 17.

A collision occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Annapolis Junction, yesterday morning, which necessitated the leaving of passenger coaches on the track. Shortly after an accommodation train telegraphed these coaches, and several persons were severely hurt, but none killed.

The Chinese Bill.
 WASHINGTON, March 17.

On account of a large number of members desiring to speak Park has given notice that he will call the previous question on the Chinese bill to-day at 3 o'clock, unless the day be devoted as usual to private bills, and in that event he will call the previous question at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Outside Accommodations Required.
 WASHINGTON, March 17.

General Meigs, who built the Capitol wings, says the raising of the dome 50 feet to provide a library room would spoil the symmetry and endanger the safety of the building. This will settle the matter, and outside accommodations will be required for the library.

 SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.

He showed some disposition to make a fight when arrested, but the showing of the Marshal's pistol quieted him. Sparks is charged with cruelty to his crew.

San Mateo Tornado.
 SAN MATEO, Cal., March 15.

A tornado passed over here this morning at 8:30. Its course was from south to north. It first struck the residence of John Parrott, moving his hot-house about two feet on its foundation, and next struck the Episcopal church, taking off about one-quarter of its roof, and taking in its course, trees and fences for a space of about 100 yards wide. The "Strategists" with the Haverly's Comedy Company, will be presented at the Opera House next Saturday evening. The piece is one of the most laughable ever produced on the stage. The plot is a farce of the most amusing and sensational kind. J. B. Polk, as "Jack Rutledge," is unequalled in his specialty. The balance of the cast is good—all are up and well suited to their parts.

He is here.

There are rumors current to-day that a young gentleman who has of late been connected with one of the county offices, is a party to a little romance. As the story goes, he secretly married the daughter of a legal gentleman who arrived in Eureka a few days since. The father, it is claimed, learned of the circumstance, and came to Eureka to see what kind of a chap his son-in-law promised to be. As both departed on the morning train for Reno, it is safe to say that the outlook is promising. The young gentleman has a good reputation in Eureka, and will no doubt prove a good husband.—Eureka Leader.

Can you guess who it is?

Elko Barley Shipped to California.

The Sentinel says: J. P. Edoff has shipped from Elko, within the last month, 96 carloads of barley to California. As each carload is eight tons, it will be seen that the total shipment is 768 tons. This is a rather singular course of trade, but it is accounted for by the fact that Elko county has found but a poor market for the sale of grain this year in Eureka. The profit of the barley shipped to California is very small, but it is better to sell at any price than not to sell at all. We expect that our neighbors in Elko will have their market in Eureka restored. The outlook of our mines warrants this expectation.

The Snow-slide at Genoa.

The fatal accident occurred at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The people of Genoa were aroused from their slumbers to see an immense avalanche of snow slide down and cover the buildings at the foot of the canyon. Mr. Bowen's house was buried under a mountain of snow, and after much labor the three occupants, Mr. B. and wife and Pauline Berlin, taken out dead. Tom Andrian's house had a very narrow escape. Fifteen Indians or more were covered up at their campodies. The people of Genoa are leaving their homes, seriously alarmed for fear of other snow-slides.

Killed and Dashed to Pieces.

Martin Molkenbaur, a miner working at the Bullion (old Ward shaft), fell about 150 feet from the 2,300 station on last Tuesday night, and was instantly killed. His body was gripped out of the hot water and brought to the surface, bruised and thoroughly cooked.

THE STORM.

Snow Falling One Foot an Hour—What a Pioneer Says of It.

CINCO, March 15.

ED. GAZETTE: We are having decidedly the worst storm of the season. I have seen but few to equal it during my residence of 18 years in the mountains. Numerous snow slides have occurred without doing any damage to the snow sheds. One large slide occurred about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon just east of Butte canyon bridge, which passed over the sheds and carried away the telegraph wires for a quarter of a mile. In one place it threw a telegraph pole about forty feet and left it hanging in a tree clear out of the snow.

Trains have been detained, but every exertion is being made to get them through to-night. We are unable to say how much snow has fallen, but it must be considerable. R. A. Campbell says it is falling at the rate of one foot per hour. Snow plows are running as far down as Colfax. A conductor on the plow with six engines telegraphed ahead for supper and said: "We will be there—in the sweet bye and bye."

PIONEER.

Mortally Wounded.

Rev. T. H. McGrath, better known on the Coast as Father McGrath, accidentally shot himself at his house in Virginia City. The fatal wound was inflicted while examining and revolving the cylinder of a cheap self-loading pistol, of inferior make. The ball entered his breast 2½ inches below and about 1½ inches to the right of the left nipple, and produced internal bleeding, which, according to his physicians, will cause his death during the day. Regaining consciousness Mr. McGrath assured Dr. Conn, "as a dying man," that the shooting was unintentional. Father McGrath was formerly a minister of the Methodist Church in California and Nevada, but afterwards resigned his vocation, and changed his religious color to more liberal and freethinking views. He was a most popular and kind-hearted man, well liked by every one who came in contact with him, socially and otherwise. He was taking care of the Masonic and Odd Fellows' cemeteries, to which lodges he belonged for many years. He had a wife and one child, and leaves an estate worth a few thousand dollars.

To Arms, Republicans!

It must not be imagined that the Republicans of Ormsby county will tamely submit to be bamboozled by a lot of political schemers and allow the State Convention to be held at Reno. Our folks are not dead, if they are sleeping, and when the storm shall subside such action will be had as will surprise those who, without cause of shame and in direct opposition to their master's wishes, ignored a resolution which was not only unanimously adopted in convention, but made public through the medium of the press. A more scandalous proceeding never occurred in a Republican Central Committee, the creatures of the State Convention.—Carson Tribune.

Are your spurs buckled on tight, Parkie?

Capt. Griffen came in from Eureka last night.

It is said Wells Drury is acting as local reporter for the Virginia Chronicle.

Hon. Pat Reddy, the well-known Bodie lawyer, and his brother, arrived from the "Bay" last evening.

Mrs. James Toombs expects to leave shortly to join her husband at Boise City, Idaho. Her daughter Miss May will accompany her.

Dr. F. R. Waggoner was a passenger on the snow-bound train which arrived here last evening. The doctor has been on a prospecting trip down the coast.

Best of All.

It seems almost superfluous to say anything about an article so well known as Syrup of figs. The fact that everybody uses it and that it gives satisfaction to all, is the best evidence of its superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public. Being as pleasant to the taste as it is certain in cleansing the system, purifying the blood, curing biliousness and constipation, that it is rapidly becoming the universal remedy.

Vacancy Filled.

Governor Kinkaid Wednesday issued a commission appointing Charles H. Sproule, of the Lander Free Press, a Regent of the State University at Elko, vice ex-Senator T. N. Stone, resigned.—Carson Tribune.

It is generally understood that Mr. Stone resigned as a member of the Board of Regents for the purpose of occupying the position of Principal.

Mohawk Valley.

From a private letter from Mohawk Valley the GAZETTE learns that the Winter has been unusually severe.

On the 9th instant 10 inches of snow fell, but cattle and stock of all kinds are looking and doing well. Considerable prospecting is going on, and some very rich ore has been found.

Married.

The San Francisco Chronicle publishes the following marriage notice: WELSH-KITTEL—In this city, March 13, 1920, by Rev. Horatio Schobert, R. R. We sh to M. Hortense Kittel.

THE STORM.

Condition of the Road West of Reno—Where the Trains Are.

The train of the 14th arrived here at 7:30 last evening. A dispatch to the GAZETTE from Colfax says the snow-plow that left Blue Canyon Wednesday, stuck in a drift one mile west of that place. Another plow left Alta early yesterday morning, with Superintendent Pratt, of the Sacramento Division, and about sixty laborers. They will work east until met by the Blue Canyon plow. The plow that left Truckee Wednesday night, stuck in a drift near Strong's Canyon. The Wednesday train is at Colfax. Wednesday's west-bound train is at Blue Canyon, and yesterday's west-bound at Truckee. A snow-slide carried away the sheds near Emigrant Gap, and another occurred at Tamarack. The extent of the damage done is not known. The plows and a large army of men are at work clearing up the track. The two delayed trains won't get through before some time to-morrow.

Fourth of July Excursion.

The Eureka Leader says a grand Fourth of July excursion to San Francisco under the auspices of P. H. Mulchahy, is on the tapis. P. T. Barnum, of Eureka, will probably manage the affair.

Moon, a thorough and competent flouring mill millwright has located his home and headquarters in Reno, Nevada, and now stands ready to build, rebuild or repair anything in the line of a first-class flouring mill in any part of the State for the least possible consideration in money that the job can be done for. Parties desiring mill machinery will find it to their advantage to correspond with me, for I can buy machinery for them cheaper than they can buy it themselves. Testimonial.

To all who may be suffering from any incurable disease, attention is called to the wonderful cures performed by Mr. A. Zimmer of Reno, Nevada. While Mr. Zimmer does not claim to be a physician, yet, whatever he undertakes is sure to terminate in a permanent cure. The worst kind of diseases, such as cancer and scrofula in all its worst forms, lung trouble, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, chronic and inflammatory rheumatism, erysipelas in all its worst forms, neuritis in the stomach, ulcerated sore legs of all kinds; fits or falling sickness; salt rheum in all its worst forms; the seven kinds of dropsy; milk leg and white swelling; gaseous or painful ulcers and moles; skin eruptions; scrofula; the highest skill of renowned physicians and pronounced incurable by them, are alike treated by him and invariably the patient recovers and enjoys health the remainder of his life from all previous ailments. The remedies used by Mr. Zimmer are a simple but efficacious, consisting simply of laying out of hands and the use of a few simple medicines of his own. He does not claim any supernatural powers, yet it must be conceded from the wonderful cures performed that some powerful agency is at work with him. Numerous cases can be cited of almost miraculous cures, and any person by writing to him, enclosing a recent photograph and information concerning the subject, and proofs that the above statements are true, will receive a free trial of his medicine. C. G. GUMMERS, Boca, Cal., March 2, 1920.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Second Judicial District, State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe.

THE STATE OF NEVADA SENDS TO

William Thompson, R. D. Alvey, J. H. Dall, E. Twaddle, E. Owens, Joseph Frey, Mrs. Reuben Perkins, Harvey Perkins and G. Carasco

Gauwron: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Mrs. F. A. Rogers, et al. in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover a judgment against you in the sum of $4,491 for damages alleged to have occurred to plaintiff by reason of the destruction of plaintiff's dwelling house, furniture, etc., and damage to plaintiff's land, etc., in same county, alleged to be in the sum of $4,491, and damage to plaintiff's goods, wares and merchandise, there situate, in the sum of $288, which damages, amounting in all to $4,779, was caused by the breaking of a certain dam belonging to you, the said defendant, and situated on Frankton creek, in said Washoe county, whereby said creek was overflowed and plaintiff's said land was covered with said gravel, and so forth, and greatly damaged, and his dwelling house and other buildings destroyed, and his said goods damaged as aforesaid. Plaintiff alleges that said dam was so broken, and carried away by reason of pure negligence and want of skill in the construction thereof; all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said Complaint, the said plaintiff will take judgment for the said amount, besides interest and costs of suit. In testimony whereof I, R. S. Osburn, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this 9th day of December, A. D. 1881.

(SEAL) R. S. OSBURN,

Clerk of the District Court of the 2d Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe County.
